(c) enter his name and address in the list of challenged votes in Form X; and

(d) require him to affix his signature in the said list.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall thereafter hold a summary inquiry into the challenge and may for that purpose—

(a) require the challenger to adduce evidence in proof of the challenge and the person challenged to adduce evidence if proof of his identity;

(b) put to the person challenged any questions necessary for the purpose of establishing his identity and require him to answer them on oath; and

(c) administer an oath to the person challenged and any other person offering to give evidence.

(4) If, after the inquiry, the Presiding Officer considers that the challenge has not been established, he shall allow the person challenged to vote; and if he considers that the challenge has been established, he shall debar the person challenged from voting.

(5) If the Presiding Officer is of the opinion that the challenge is frivolous or has not been made in good faith, he shall direct that the deposit made under sub-rule (1) be forfeited to the Panchayat and in any other case, he shall return it to the challenger at the conclusion of the inquiry.

39. Safeguards against personation.—(1) Every elector about whose identity the Presiding Officer or the Polling Officer, as the case may be, is satisfied, shall allow his left forefinger to be inspected by the Presiding Officer or Polling Officer and an indelible ink mark to be put on it.

(2) If any elector refuses to allow his left forefinger to be inspected or marked in accordance with sub-rule (1) or has already such a mark on his left forefinger or does any act with a view to removing the ink mark, he shall not be supplied with any ballot paper or allowed to vote.

(3) Any reference in this rule to the left forefinger of an elector shall, in the case where the elector has his left forefinger missing, be construed as a reference to any other finger of his left hand; and shall in the case where all the fingers of his left hand are missing, be construed as a reference to the forefinger or any other finger of his right hand and shall in the case where all his fingers of both the hands are missing be construed as a reference to such extremity of his left or right arms as he possesses.

40. Issue of ballot papers to electors.—(1) Every ballot paper shall before issue to an elector be stamped with such distinguishing mark as the election authority may direct.

(2) At the time of issuing a ballot paper to an elector the polling officer shall record the serial number thereof against the entry relating to the elector in the copy of the electoral roll set apart for the purpose.

(3) Save as provided in sub-rule (2), no person in the polling station shall note down the serial numbers of the ballot papers issued to particular electors.

41. Voting procedure.—(1) The elector on receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith—

(a) proceed to one of the voting compartments,

(b) there make a mark or marks on the ballot paper with the instrument supplied for the purpose on or near the symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote,

(c) fold the ballot paper so as to conceal his vote.

(d) if required, show to the Presiding Officer the distinguishing mark on the ballot paper,

(e) insert the folded ballot paper into the ballot box, and

(f) quit the polling station.

(2) Every elector shall vote without undue delay.

(3) No elector shall be allowed to enter a voting compartment when another elector is inside it.

42. Recording of votes of blind or infirm electors.—(1) If owing to blindness or other physical infirmity, an elector is unable to recognise the symbols on the ballot paper or to make a mark thereon, the Presiding Officer shall record the vote on the ballot paper in accordance with the wishes of the elector, fold it so as to conceal the vote and insert it into the ballot box.

(2) While acting under this rule, the Presiding Officer shall observe as much secrecy as is feasible and shall keep a brief record of each such instance but shall not indicate therein the manner in which any vote has been given.

43. Spoilt and returned ballot papers.—(1) An elector who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on returning it to the Presiding Officer and on satisfying him of the inadvertence, be given another ballot paper, and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked "Spoilt: cancelled" by the Presiding Officer.

(2) If an elector after obtaining a ballot paper decides not to use it, he shall return it to the Presiding Officer, and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked as "Returned: cancelled" by the Presiding Officer.

(3) All ballot papers cancelled under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall be kept in a separate packet.

44. Tendered votes.—(1) If a person representing himself to be a particular elector applies for a ballot paper after another person has already voted as such elector, he shall, on satisfactorily answering such questions relating to his identity as the Presiding Officer may ask, be entitled, subject to the following provisions of this rule, to mark a ballot paper (hereinafter in these rules referred to as a "tendered ballot paper") in the same manner as any other elector.

(2) Every such person shall, before being supplied with a tendered ballot paper, sign his name against the entry relating to him in a list in Form XI.

(3) A tendered ballot paper shall be the same as the other ballot papers used at the polling except that it shall be—

(a) serially the last in the bundle of ballot papers issued for use at the polling station; and

(b) endorsed on the back with the words "tendered ballot paper" by the Presiding Officer in his own hand and signed by him.

(4) The elector, after marking a tendered ballot paper in the voting compartment and folding it, shall, instead of putting it into the ballot box, give it to the Presiding Officer, who shall place it in a cover specially kept for the purpose.

45. Closing of poll.—(1) The Presiding Officer shall close a polling station at the hour fixed in that behalf under rule 10 and shall not thereafter admit any elector into the polling station:

Provided that all electors present at the polling station before it is closed shall be allowed to cast their votes.

(2) If any question arises whether an elector was present at the polling station before it was closed, it shall be decided by the Presiding Officer and his decision shall be final.

46. Sealing of ballot boxes after poll.—(1) As soon as practicable after the closing of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall close the slit of the ballot box, and where the box does not contain any mechanical device for closing the slit, he shall seal up the slit and also allow any polling agent present to affix his seal.

(2) The ballot box shall thereafter be sealed and secured.

(3) Where it becomes necessary to use a second ballot box by reason for the first ballot box getting full, the first box shall be closed, sealed and secured as provided in sub-rules (1) and (2) before another ballot box is put into use.

47. Account of ballot papers.—The Presiding Officer shall at the close of the poll prepare a ballot paper account in Form XII and enclose it in a separate cover with the words "Ballot Paper Account" superscribed thereon.

48. Sealing of other packets.—(1) The Presiding Officer shall then make into separate packets—

(a) the marked copy of the electoral roll;

(b) the unused ballot papers;

(c) the cancelled ballot papers;

(d) the cover containing the tendered papers and the list in Form XI;

(e) the list of challenged votes; and

(f) any other papers directed by the Returning Officer to be kept in a sealed packet.

(2) Each such packet shall be sealed with the seals of the Presiding Officer and of those polling agents present who may desire to affix their seals thereon.

49. Transmission of ballot boxes etc., to the Returning Officer.—(1) The Presiding Officer shall then deliver or cause to be delivered to the Returning Officer at such place as the Returning Officer may direct—

(a) the ballot boxes;

(b) the ballot paper account;

(c) the sealed packets referred to in rule 48; and

(d) all other papers used at the poll.

(2) The Returning Officer shall make adequate arrangements for the safe transport of all ballot boxes, packets and other papers and for their safe custody until the commencement of the counting of votes.

50. Adjournment of poll in emergencies.—(1) If at an election the proceedings at any polling station provided under rule 10 are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or open violence, or if at an election it is not possible to take the poll at any polling station on account of any natural calamity, or any other sufficient cause, the Presiding Officer for such polling station shall announce an adjournment of the poll to a date to be notified later, and shall forthwith inform the Returning Officer concerned.

(2) Whenever a poll is adjourned under sub-rule (1) the Returning Officer shall immediately report the circumstances to the election authority, and shall, as soon as may be, with the previous approval of the Election Authority appoint the day on which the poll shall recommence, and fix the polling station and the hours during which, the poll will be taken, and shall not count the votes cast at such election until such adjourned poll shall have been completed.

51. Fresh poll in the case of destruction etc., of ballot boxes.—(1) If at any election, any ballot box used at a polling station is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the Presiding Officer, or the Returning Officer, or is any way tampered with, or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed, lost or damaged, and the Returning Officer is satisfied that in consequence thereof the result of the poll at that polling station cannot be ascertained, he shall—

(a) declare the polling at that polling station to be void;

(b) report the matter forthwith to the election authority;

(c) with the previous approval of the election authority appoint a day, and fix the hours for taking a fresh poll at the polling station; and

(d) notify the day so appointed and the hours so fixed by him in such manner as the election authority may direct.

(2) The provisions of these rules or orders made thereunder shall apply to every such fresh poll as they apply to the original poll.

52. Procedure on adjournment of poll.—(1) If the poll at any polling station is adjourned under Rule 50 the provisions of rules 46 and 49 shall, as far as practicable, apply as if the poll was closed at the hour fixed in that behalf under rule 10.

(2) When an adjourned poll is recommended under sub-rule (2) of rule 50, the electors who have already voted at the poll so adjourned shall not be allowed to vote again.

(3) The Returning Officer shall provide the Presiding Officer of the polling station at which such adjourned poll is held, with the sealed packet containing the marked copy of the electoral roll and a new ballot box.

(4) The Presiding Officer shall open the sealed packet in the presence of the polling agents present and use the marked copy of the electoral roll for recording the serial numbers of the ballot papers issued to electors at the adjourned poll.

(5) The provisions of rules 32 to 49 shall apply in relation to the conduct of an adjourned poll as they apply in relation to the poll before it was so adjourned.

53. Counting of votes.—The Returning Officer shall commence the counting of votes on the date and at the time and place appointed for the purpose under rule 10.

54. Admission to the place fixed for counting.—(1) The Returning Officer shall exclude from the place fixed for counting of votes all persons except—

(a) such persons as he may appoint to assist him in the counting;

(b) persons authorised by the election authority;

(c) public servants on duty in connection with the election; and

(d) candidates, their election agents and counting agents.

(2) No person who has been employed by or on behalf of, or has been otherwise working for, a candidate in or about the election shall be appointed under clause (a) of sub-rule (1).

(3) The Returning Officer shall decide which counting agent or agents shall watch the counting at any particular counting table or group of counting tables.

(4) Any person who during the counting of votes misconducts himself or fails to obey the lawful directions of the Returning Officer may be removed from the place where the votes are being counted by the Returning Officer or by any police officer on duty or by any person authorised in this behalf by the Returning Officer.

55. Maintenance of secrecy of voting.—The Returning Officer shall, before he commences the counting, read out the provisions of section 105 of the Act to such persons as may be present.

56. Scrutiny and opening of ballot boxes.—(1) The Returning Officer may have the ballot boxes used at more than one polling station opened and their contents counted simultaneously.

(2) Before any ballot box is opened at a counting table, the counting agents present at that table shall be allowed to inspect the paper seal or such other seal as might have been affixed thereon and to satisfy themselves that it is intact.

(3) The Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that none of the ballot boxes has in fact been tampered with.

(4) If the Returning Officer is satisfied that any ballot box has in fact been tampered with, he shall not count the ballot papers contained in that box and shall follow the procedure laid down in Rule 51 in respect of that polling station.

57. Scrutiny and rejection of ballot papers.—(1) The ballot papers taken out of each ballot box shall be arranged in convenient bundles and scrutinised.

(2) The Returning Officer shall reject a ballot paper—

(a) if it bears any mark or writing by which the elector can be identified, or

(b) if no vote is recorded thereon, or

(c) if votes are given on it in favour of more candidates than there are members to be elected, or

(d) if the mark indicating the vote thereon is placed in such manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given, or

(e) if it is a spurious ballot paper, or

(f) if it is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established, or

(g) if it bears a serial number, or is of a design, different from the serial numbers or, as the case may be, design, of the ballot papers authorised for use at the particular polling station, or

(h) if it does not bear the mark which it should have borne under the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 40:

Provided that where the Returning Officer is satisfied that any such defect as is mentioned in clause (g) or clause (h) has been caused by any mistake or failure on the part of a Presiding Officer or Polling Officer, the ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground of such defect:

Provided further that a ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground that the mark indicating the vote is indistinct or made more than once, if the intention that the vote shall be for a particular candidate clearly appears from the way the Paper is marked; and

Provided also that when an elector has more votes than one and his ballot paper has not been rejected under the sub-rules (a) to (h), the vote or votes other than the rejected vote shall be duly counted.

(3) Before rejecting any ballot paper under sub-rule (2) the Returning Officer shall allow each counting agent present a reasonable opportunity to inspect the ballot paper but shall not allow him to handle it or any other ballot paper.

(4) The Returning Officer shall record on every ballot paper which he rejects the letter 'R' and the grounds of rejection in abbreviated form either in his own hand or by means of a rubber stamp.

(5) All ballot papers rejected under this rule shall be bundled together.

58. Counting of votes.—(1) Every ballot paper or as the case may be every vote which is not rejected under rule 57 shall be counted as one valid vote:

Provided that no cover containing tendered ballot papers shall be opened and no such paper shall be counted.

(2) After the counting of all ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes used at a polling station has been completed, the Returning Officer shall make the entries in a result sheet in Form XIII and announce the particulars.

(3) The valid ballot papers shall thereafter be bundled together and kept along with the bundle of rejected ballot papers in a separate packet which shall be sealed and on which shall be recorded the following particulars, namely:

(a) the name of the ward,

(b) the particulars of the polling station where the ballot papers have been used, and

(c) the date of counting.

59. Counting to be continuous.—The Returning Officer shall as far as practicable, proceed continuously with the counting and shall, during any intervals when the counting has to be suspended, keep the ballot papers, packets and all other papers relating to the election sealed with his own seal and the seals of such candidates or election agents as may desire to affix their seals and take sufficient precaution for their safe custody during such intervals.

60. Re-commencement of counting after fresh poll.—(1) If a fresh poll is held under rule 51 the Returning Officer shall, after completion of that poll, re-commence the counting of votes on the date and at the time and place which have been fixed by him in that behalf and of which notice has been previously given to the candidates and their election agents.

(2) The provisions of rules 57 and 58 shall apply so far may be to such further counting.

61. Scrutiny and counting of postal ballot papers.—(1) After the counting of ballot papers found in ballot boxes has been completed, the Returning Officer shall deal with the postal ballot papers in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) No cover containing a postal ballot paper received by the Returning Officer after the expiry of the time fixed in that behalf shall be opened and no vote contained in any such cover shall be counted.

(3) The other covers shall be opened one after another and as each cover is opened, the Returning Officer shall in the presence of the candidates or their agents scrutinise the postal ballot papers and separate or cause to be separated the ballot papers, which he deems valid from those which he rejects endorsing on the latter the letter 'R' and the grounds for rejection in abbreviated form either in his own hand or by means of a rubber stamp.

(4) A postal ballot paper shall be rejected—

(a) if the declaration in the ballot paper has not been duly signed or attested or is otherwise substantially defective; or

(b) if no vote is recorded thereon; or

(c) if votes are given on it in favour of more candidates than there are members to be elected; or

(d) if it is a spurious ballot paper; or

(e) if it is so damaged or mutilated that its indentity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established.

(5) A vote recorded on a postal ballot paper shall be rejected if the mark indicating the vote is placed on the ballot paper in such manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given.

(6) A vote recorded on a postal ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground that the mark indicating the vote is indistinct or made more than once, if the intention that the vote shall be for a particular candidate or candidates clearly appears from the way the paper is marked.

(7) In the case of a plural member ward where more than one vote can be given on the same ballot paper, if any vote is given by a mark which has not been duly made or by placing more marks than one against any candidate's name or if any of the marks is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate it has been given, only the vote concerned, but not the whole ballot paper, shall be invalid on that count.

(8) The Returning Officer shall count all the valid votes given by postal ballot in favour of each candidate, record the total thereof in the result sheet in Form XIII and announce the same.

(9) Thereafter, all the valid ballot papers and all the rejected ballot papers shall be separately bundled and kept together in a packet which shall be sealed and on which shall be recorded the name of the ward the date of counting and a brief description of its contents.

62. Recount of votes.—(1) After the completion of the counting, the Returning Officer shall record in the result sheet in Form XIII the total number of votes polled by each candidate and announce the same.

(2) After such announcement has been made, a candidate or, in his absence, his election agent may apply in writing to the Returning Officer for a recount of all or any of the ballot papers already counted stating the grounds on which he demands such recount.

(3) On such an application being made the Returning Officer shall decide the matter and may allow the application in whole or in part or may reject it in to to if it appears to him to be frivolous or unreasonable.

(4) Every decision of the Returning Officer under sub-rule (3) shall be in writing and contain the reasons therefor.

(5) If the Returning Officer decides under sub-rule (3) to allow an application either in whole or in part, he shall—

(a) count the ballot papers again in accordance with his decision;

(b) amend the result sheet in Form XIII to the extent necessary after such recount; and

(c) announce the amendments so made by him.

(6) After the total number of votes polled by each candidate has been announced under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (5), the Returning Officer shall complete and sign the result sheet in Form XIII and no application for a recount shall be entertained thereafter:

Provided that no step under this sub-rule shall be taken on the completion of the counting until the candidates and election agents present at the completion thereof have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by sub-rule (2).

63. Declaration of result of election.—When the counting of votes has been completed the Returning Officer shall forthwith complete the entries in Form XIII and shall subject to the provisions in rule 64 declare to be elected the candidate or candidates to whom the largest number of valid votes has or have been given.

64. Drawing of lots in case of equality of votes.—If there is an equality of votes between any two or more candidates, the Returning Officer shall, after notice to the candidates or their authorised agents if present, decide by drawing lots in such manner as he may deem fit which of the candidate or candidates he shall declare to have been elected.
